PAINLEVE CABINET RESIGNS AND BRIAND TRIES TO FORM NEW MINISTRY FOR FRANCE

Efforts of Foreign Minister and Former Premier to Bring Order Into Disturbed Affairs of France Watched To-day; Painleve Cabinet Defeated by Only Three Votes on its Financial Policy

Paris, Nov. 23.—The Painleve Cabinet having resigned yesterday, following an adverse vote on its finance bill in the Chamber of Deputies, Foreign Minister Briand this afternoon provisionally accepted President Doumergue's order to form a new cabinet.

M. Briand announced he would give a definite reply to the President in the course of the evening.

The Foreign Minister, who has held the premiership seven times in his lengthy political career, returned to Paris this morning and had two long telephone conversations with the President.

M. Briand was suggested by the only man capable of leading France out of the present tangle.

Some of the Foreign Minister's friends fear he will accept under the present conditions. The only alternative to a Briand ministry, they say, is one headed by former Premier Herriot, with the old Left behind it, including Socialist participation.

BY THREE VOTES

In the division at an early hour yesterday morning which caused its downfall the Painleve Ministry was defeated by only three votes.

BUDGET WILL BE CLIMAX OF HEAVY WEEK IN HOUSE

Important Legislation Coming Down in Advance of MacLean's Budget Speech

Insurance Regulations to be Consolidated and Succession Laws Altered

The Provincial Legislature started on a heavy week's programme to-day. The schedule of business as outlined by the Government this morning includes three days' concentration on legislation with the Budget Speech of Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Finance, coming down on Thursday or Friday.

Arrangements for the Budget Speech may be altered by developments of the week, but under present plans the Finance Minister will file his annual account of the Province's finances before the week-end.

Important legislation, chiefly of a technical character, will be introduced to-day and to-morrow. Among other bills will be legislation to cover a complete consolidation of the various insurance acts of the Province, which will sweep five acts into one in a Bill to be tabled by Attorney General MacLean.

It is also to be tabled the law on this subject having been in unsatisfactory shape for many years. All the old English marine insurance laws which are effective in this Province will be brought together and put in definite form in one provincial statute.

A new Act on intestate succession is to be tabled shortly as the product of the work of the Commissioners of Uniformity of Legislation. It introduces some radical changes in the disposition of the estates of people who die without leaving wills.

The Motor Vehicles Act amendments will also be down shortly to be considered along with the way Act amendments already before the House.

ODLUM AND PECK TO BE B.C. TRUSTEES OF CANTEEN FUNDS

Soldier Members of House Choose Military Men as Province's Representatives

Third Member to be Named By Amalgamated Veterans; Interior Man Favored

Meeting at Premier Oliver's request this morning the soldier members of the Legislature nominated Brig.-Gen. V. W. Odlum, of Vancouver, and Col. C. W. Peck, V.C., of Sidney, as two of British Columbia's trustees for the $200,000 of the Canadian Canteen Fund to be allotted to this Province. It was agreed that they should choose a third member of their board when they will probably ask the executive of the amalgamated service men's organization to name from among representative veterans of the interior of the Province.

The amalgamation is expected to be completed in the near future. The special act passed by Parliament last session for disposal of the Canteen Fund provided that it should be divided among the provinces and that the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council of each province should appoint three trustees to administer the provincial allotment for three years without remuneration.

Premier Oliver asked the soldier members to nominate the trustees for this Province, but it was decided that the third man had better be chosen by the new amalgamated organization of veterans as soon as that association is formed. Since Col. Peck is from Vancouver Island and General Odlum from the lower mainland it is also suggested that the third man should be from the interior.

JUDGMENT IN FAVOR OF UNITED CHURCH

Nanaimo Continuing Presbyterians Must Find New Edifice For Worship

Vancouver, Nov. 23.—Members of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Nanaimo, continuing in the denomination, must seek a new place of worship. By the decision of Mr. Justice Murphy of the Supreme Court, handed down to-day, the church property, with the building itself, automatically becomes the property of the United Church of Canada.

This development was the outcome of a long controversy between St. Andrew's Church and officials of the United Church.

By an election, which was the basis of the civil court dispute, St. Andrew's voted anti-union by a majority of ten votes last year. Members of the church whose names were on the communion roll but who were excluded from the voters' list, protested.

TWO OBJECTIONS

Their first objection was made in January, 1925, signed by eight members, and a second was entered in February.

SEVENTEEN LOST LIVES WHEN TUG SANK OFF BRAZIL

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Nov. 23.—Seventeen members of the crew of the Brazilian tug Mogy are reported to have perished when the boat went down after a boiler explosion while she was on her way to Bahia. The only survivors, the captain and one sailor, were picked up by the Pan-American Petroleum Company's steamer Azul, en route to this port.

SOVIET RUSSIA NOT READY TO JOIN LEAGUE

Moscow, Nov. 23.—Soviet Russia firmly intends in the future, as in the past, to stand aloof from the League of Nations and similar organizations. Acting Foreign Minister Litvinoff declared to-day. The Locarno security treaty would not alter the Soviet's foreign policy, he said.

BEATTY SEES YEARS OF PROSPERITY AHEAD FOR CANADIANS

Toronto, Nov. 23.—That economic conditions in Western Canada were rapidly improving was a statement made in an interview here Saturday by E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

In regard to conditions generally throughout Canada, Mr. Beatty said there was no doubt the country was on the verge of prosperity.

FUTURE OF P.G.E. WILL BE ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK; PLAN OF SCRAPPING LINE REJECTED

Within two or three days the people of British Columbia will know definitely what the Government intends to do with the Pacific Great Eastern Railway. A definite official announcement on the future of the line will be made by the Government in the Legislature before this week is out and probably before Wednesday night. This intimation of the Government's plans was given out to-day.

NO SCRAPPING

While the Government's railway policy has not been made known it was learned definitely that talk of the P.G.E. being abandoned or scrapped is without foundation. Clear-cut announcement that the Government has absolutely no intention of scrapping the railway will be made when the Government outlines its policy to the House. It is also certain that the railway will not be extended into the Peace River country as proposed by northern members of the House.

Whether the railway should be extended northward into Prince George or southward into North Vancouver both are points on which the Government has not reached a final decision yet, it is understood. Final decision on these questions will be made within the next forty-eight hours, it is expected, after more complete engineering data has been laid before the Cabinet.

GOES BACK TO U.S. MARINE CORPS; GEN. S. D. BUTLER

Philadelphia, Nov. 23.—Brigadier-General Smedley D. Butler, for the last two years Director of Public Safety in Philadelphia, is going back to the United States Marine Corps. Addressing his audience of women that his job here "is not worth staying for—a waste of time."

He asked complete support be given to Assistant Director George Elliott, who is slated to succeed him when his leave of absence from the marines expires December 21.

"I was brought here at the insistence of your leading political men," said General Butler. "I was told you were dirty, filthy, that you needed a cleaning. After I came everyone ran away except you-mayors. They insulted me and kicked me around and you sat back and let them. I have learned a lot of things and no one can ever persuade me to serve in a public office again except in war-time."

200 ACRES OF POTATOES GIVE $143,000 PROFIT

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 23.—Two hundred acres of potatoes raised near Salmon, Idaho, will yield a profit of approximately $143,000 to the owners of the two tracts, making up the 200 acres. Peter McKinney, of Nielsen and McKinney, owners of 120 acres, said to-day the yield of their tract had averaged 22,000 pounds, or 320 sacks, to the acre. He said the eighty-acre tract owned by the Shannon Land Company had averaged 300 sacks an acre. The combined yield of the two tracts was 25,600 sacks.

Disturbance in Massachusetts

Fall River, Mass., Nov. 23.—Reports of an earthquake in this vicinity poured into the city last evening. Excited householders called the police and telephone operators to learn what the disturbance was.

The operators reported that all lights on incoming lines suddenly flashed. Newport, R.I., and Warren, reported they also felt the shock.

TISSUE TAKEN FROM HEART OF CHICKEN HAS BEEN KEPT GROWING FOR TWELVE YEARS

New York, Nov. 23.—Live tissue taken from the heart of a chicken in 1913 by Dr. Alexis Carrel is still growing under care of Rockefeller Institute experts. If it had not been pared down each day, it now would be "a colossal monster" overgrowing the entire city of New York, they said to-day.

The growth of the tissue is so great that it doubles every twenty-four hours. Motion pictures showing this growth have been taken and are being studied by scientists.

As long as the tissue is nurtured and irrigated it cannot die, say Institute officials.

Roald Amundsen Expects to Visit Seattle Feb. 21

Seattle, Nov. 23.—Roald Amundsen, noted Norwegian explorer, will lecture in Seattle February 21 prior to his next Polar dash, Gunnar Lund, newspaper publisher, announced here to-day. Work on the mast and aerodrome needed for the Italian dirigible which Amundsen will use has already been started, Lund said.

OSCAR BASS MAY RUN FOR TRUSTEE TO END HOMEWORK

Prominent Lawyer Considers Children Overburdened by Studies

Oscar Bass, well known as a lawyer since 1903, is being urged by many friends to stand for election to the City School Board.

Mr. Bass this morning stated that he has made no decision up to the present, but if he should enter the contest would make his main campaign on a policy of opposition to compulsory home-work, a burden he believes excessively heavy on children who have spent long hours in school.

"This is a matter which should be remedied, I have had opinions advanced to home tasks for some years, and this condition has been growing steadily more serious," said Mr. Bass.

HAD NEWS CAREER

Mr. Bass came to Victoria thirty-five years ago from Montreal, where he was a member of the editorial staff of The Gazette. For a number of years he was connected with the editorial department of The Daily Colonist, later being associated with The Daily Times.

A term as court reporter preceded active study of the law and in 1903, after service in the Provincial Attorney-General's office, Mr. Bass entered the legal profession.

PARLIAMENT ASSURES KING OF SYMPATHY

Addresses on Death of Queen Mother Alexandra Passed By Both British Houses

London, Nov. 23.—The love which the country bore for Queen Mother Alexandra and the sympathy felt for her son in his bereavement were recorded in addresses to the King, adopted by the House of Commons and the House of Lords this evening.

In the lower House the motion was introduced by Premier Balfour and the House passed it by a rising and standing in silence.

Mr. Baldwin, as Prime Minister, and Ramsay MacDonald and Mr. Lloyd George, as leaders of the Opposition, paid tributes to the late Queen.

It was remarked as a coincidence that these leaders, by birth, represented England, Scotland and Wales, and when T. P. O'Connor added the voice of Ireland, all sections of the British Isles had spoken.

Similar speeches were made in the House of Lords, where there was a large attendance of the peers.

Herbert W. Whitaker Died in Vancouver

Vancouver, Nov. 23.—An old timer, "The Pioneer of Sechelt," Herbert W. Whitaker, died Sunday at the home of his brother, R. P. Whitaker, 2646 Beach Avenue, Vancouver. Death was not unexpected as Mr. Whitaker had been in poor health for some time.

Coming to Vancouver in 1890 from Bedford, England, when sixteen years old, Mr. Whitaker resided here for two years. He then moved to Sechelt, where he made his home for thirty-two years. There he conducted a hotel and a large summer resort.

A widow and two children survive him.

H. GREENFIELD RESIGNS AS HEAD OF ALBERTA CABINET AND BROWNLEE TAKES OFFICE

Changes in Ministry of Prairie Province Made as Result of Differences of Opinion Among Members of Farmer Party Regarding Quality of Greenfield's Leadership; Premier Brownlee Continues as Attorney-General.

Edmonton, Nov. 23.—Premier Herbert Greenfield, leader of the Farmer Government of Alberta since it took over the reins of office from the former Liberal administration in 1921, tendered his resignation to the Lieutenant-Governor at 11.30 this morning, recommending that he ask Attorney-General J. E. Brownlee to form a government.

Premier Brownlee was sworn in immediately thereafter, followed by his ministers, the official duty being performed by the Lieutenant-Governor at his chambers in the Government Buildings.

While some changes have been made in portfolios in the new cabinet, no changes in personnel have been made. Neither is there a new Attorney-General named to replace Premier Brownlee.

The new Cabinet is composed of the following members:

Premier and Attorney-General—Hon. J. E. Brownlee; Provincial Treasurer and Minister of Municipalities—Hon. R. G. Reid; Minister of Agriculture and Public Health and Provincial Secretary—Hon. George Hoadley; Minister of Labor and Public Works—Hon. Alexander Ross; Minister of Railways and Telephones—Hon. W. Smith; Minister of Education—Hon. Perin E. Baker; Minister without portfolio—Hon. Irene Parley.

The only changes in portfolio are that Premier Brownlee, while retaining his portfolio as Attorney-General, relinquishes that of Provincial Secretary to Mr. Hoadley, while the portfolio of Minister of Municipal Affairs, held formerly by Mr. Greenfield, goes to Mr. Reid, who retains also that of Provincial Treasurer.

ELECTED IN 1921

Mr. Greenfield was not a candidate at the general election in 1921, but he was called upon to-day from Calgary and with bowed head, to take office as Premier.

On August 31, 1921, Premier Greenfield assumed office. He was elected a member of the Provincial Legislature for the Peace River constituency.

DEATH SENTENCE IS GIVEN WINNIPEG

John Stanton to be Hanged Feb. 9 For Murdering John Penny, Aged 70

Winnipeg, Nov. 23.—John Stanton, convicted of slaying John Penny, seventy years old, in Winnipeg early in December, 1922, was sentenced to-day to be hanged February 9 next.

Stanton listened to the pronouncement of sentence. In a statement to the court he said:

"I don't know why I should pay the debt. Finally when the men who actually did the killing and got the 'staff' are walking the streets to-day, I don't think that is justice."

In passing sentence Mr. Justice Adamson announced the date of execution as Monday, February 9. That date, it was later pointed out on the bench, will fall on a Tuesday and counsel for Stanton intimated the sentence might be challenged on technical grounds. The written judgment, however, definitely fixed the date as Tuesday, February 9.

The crime which Stanton was to be hanged was one of the most brutal in local police history. At the trial it was shown he had plotted to rob Penny of a sum of money and jewelry.

VOLSTEAD ACT IS DECLARED FAILURE

As Much Drunkenness in U.S. as Before Prohibition, Say Moderationists

New York, Nov. 23.—The conclusion that the Volstead Act has failed utterly to accomplish its purpose to promote temperance and sobriety in the United States has been reached by the Moderation League, on the basis of a survey of conditions in several hundred representative cities. The survey collected figures dealing with prohibition during the last eleven years from every city or town of more than 5,000 population.

On the basis of this data, the league declares "drunkenness generally has increased to virtually the pre-prohibition levels, and certain classes of intoxication cases, among auto drivers and minors especially, have increased far above anything ever known before in this country."

STATEMENT BY WHEELER

Washington, Nov. 23.—The prohibition survey of the Moderation League, made public in New York, brought a statement last night from W. H. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon League of the United States, in which he declared: "The Moderation League will fool no one but the liquor dealers and the deluded wits who are financing it."

"The Moderation League," he said, "is an imported Canadian weapon, advocating beer and light wines. Its statements are neither accurate nor convincing."

HULL OF SS. VIDAR IS NOW EXAMINED

No Indication in Log of Swedish Ship She Sank Submarine M-1

Stockholm, Nov. 23.—The log of the Swedish steamship Vidar indicates the vessel was not responsible for the accident which is believed to have caused the sinking of the British monitor submarine M-1.

When a shock was felt while the vessel was in the English Channel last night, the British command immediately reported the incident.

Several plates near the Vidar's bow were damaged.

The hull will be examined to discover whether any part from the submarine adhered to it.

PARLIAMENT ASSURES KING OF SYMPATHY

A number of peeresses dressed in black were in the galleries. FUNERAL CEREMONIES
Throughout the last rites in memory of Queen Mother Alexandra the tributes will be like those of friends for a revered and beloved woman and will be conducted without much of the funeral pageantry customary to royalty.

On Thursday next the King and Queen and other members of the royal family, villagers and retainers will walk in solemn procession behind the casket from Sandringham church to Wolverton station, from where it will be transported to London. The funeral ceremonies will be similar to those of the simple British subject.

The coffin will be placed in the chapel of St. James Palace Thursday night, and will be removed to Westminster Abbey early Friday, with troops attending and a limited ceremonial. The public will be admitted during the afternoon.

WATCH WILL BE KEPT
In the evening the casket will be taken to Windsor Castle, and throughout all the proceedings watchers will be detailed to keep vigil.

Only members of the royal family and the late Queen's household will attend the funeral service, after which the body will be placed temporarily in the royal tombhouse under the chapel until the sarcophagus now being erected in the chapel for the remains of Edward VII and Alexandra is completed.

COURT IN MOURNING
King George has approved the arrangement whereby the court goes into mourning for three months, the first two months full mourning and the remaining month half mourning.

PAINLEVE RESIGNS AND BRIAND TRIES TO FORM FRENCH CABINET

M. Painleve fell on the question of consolidation of national defence bonds. The Premier had stated plainly during the protracted debate on Saturday night that unless his hands were supported, it would be impossible to conserve longer the responsibility of the Government. As a result of the vote of 278 to 199, was announced, the resignation of the Cabinet was promulgated.

ACTED QUICKLY
The scene in the chamber was dramatic. Hardly waiting for a formal declaration of the result, M. Painleve turned and without a word walked from the room. He was followed at once by his Ministers.

Turned around for a minute and then, on the motion of Herriot, leader of the Radical Socialists and former Premier, adjournment was taken until Tuesday.

Growing discontent with Premier Painleve's financial proposals, even among the Government supporters, was responsible for his fall yesterday, less than a month after he had reconstituted his ministry to meet the wishes of the radical groups in the Chamber.

After the final vote the Ministers met hastily and presented their letter of resignation to President Doumergue, who immediately accepted the resignations looking to the formation of a new ministry.

The actual rock on which the Ministry was wrecked was not what was regarded as inevitable heavy inflation and of a deep-rooted dislike for a "default," as the Opposition characterized forced consolidation.

BILL INTRODUCED
At an extraordinary session of the Chamber this afternoon, Premier Painleve introduced a bill calling for increases of the advances of the Bank of France to the Government of 1,000,000,000 francs. The bill was referred to the finance committee for report and the Chamber adjourned until 4 o'clock.

REPUBLIC ENDURES
Premier Painleve, in a statement to-day, replied to the rumors of an impending coup which had been circulating throughout the country for the last two weeks.

"Governments fall, but the republic stands," he said. "We are still able to watch over her. Keep this in mind, if anyone believes the moment has come, he is mistaken."

The consensus of opinion to-day was that the second Painleve Cabinet fell like all other French Cabinets during the last year, a victim of the financial situation rather than of a political manoeuvre.

BILL IS CARRIED
Paris, Nov. 23.—The Chamber of Deputies this afternoon adopted the bill authorizing an increase of the Bank of France's advances to the Government by 1,000,000,000 francs. The vote was 243 to 44, the National Block and the Socialists abstaining.

JUDGMENT IN FAVOR OF UNITED CHURCH

The Presbyterian Synod, a body asked to determine the status of the election by the governing body of the church, decided it was invalid because eligible voters had been excluded from the lists. The General Assembly concurred.

St. Andrew's Church appealed to the synod on this decision and it was decided to place the dispute before civil courts for final decision.

ELECTION INVALID
Mr. Justice Murphy in his judgment held that the election was invalid according to both the Federal and British Columbia acts governing church union. These persons on the communion roll whose names were left from the voters' list were entitled to vote, he explained.

While the church had claimed they were no longer church members in 1917, some of them had sworn they wished to continue and others were stricken out without notice.

The judge referred to the difference in phraseology between the Federal and provincial acts pertaining to church union, but explained this divergence did not form the basis of his judgment. It did not affect the result.

Costs of the action were not awarded either way, the judge explaining it had been agreed at the outset of the trial that expenses would be borne equally by each side.

Conservatives Will Elect New Officers

New officers will be elected by the Victoria Conservative Association at its annual meeting in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium on Wednesday evening. W. J. Bowyer, R. H. Pooley and Victoria members of the Provincial Legislature will be speakers at the meeting.

After the family service in Sandringham on Saturday there was an informal lying in state for the household, tenants, retainers and pensioners. The body of the Queen Mother, calm and peaceful, repose on which she died and over which a beautiful pale pink coverlet had been spread. There were a few flowers in the room.

Although the Queen Mother's death affects the social and business life of the whole country, certain events of importance can not be delayed. The signing of the Locarno treaties in London will take place December 1, but the elaborate ceremony in connection with it will be considerably curtailed, perhaps entirely abandoned, the procedure being merely the formal affixing of signatures to the treaties.

The state banquet at Buckingham Palace and the Lord Mayor's luncheon at the Guild Hall on that day and Premier Balfour's luncheon December 2 likely will be cancelled.

The House of Commons will not adjourn, but on the day of the funeral will not be in session until after the services.

HON. J. E. BROWNLEE NEW PREMIER OF ALBERTA

tuency on December 2, 1921, following the resignation of D. M. Kennedy, and has held the principal seat in the Farmer Government ever since.

It is unlikely the inside story of the disaffection in the Farmer ranks which has led to the present break will ever be made public, but those who profess to seque political undercurrents claim they saw signs of dissatisfaction with Premier Greenfield's leadership after the first session of the Legislature which followed the 1921 general election.

RAILWAY FAILURES
Premier Greenfield's stand on the northern railways was not altogether to the liking of some of the Farmer backbenchers, while they appeared to be a growing feeling he was leaning too much on Attorney-General Brownlee, both in the House and outside it. In addition, the Premier's followers seemed to have gathered the impression that in some way he was growing away from the Farmer Party and from the ideals of the party.

BORN IN ONTARIO
Mr. Brownlee, the new Premier, is forty-one years of age and a barrister by profession. He was born in Ontario. He represents the constituency of Ponoka in the Legislature.

BACK TO FARM
Rumors that the former Premier would take some official position on the Utilities Board, are denied by Mr. Greenfield.

"Back to the farm, for me," was his only comment this morning. I'm through with politics for good and all."

Premier Brownlee, immediately following his swearing-in, named his Cabinet Ministers and a brief formal Cabinet meeting inaugurated the new Government.

STATEMENT BY GREENFIELD
Premier Greenfield, as one of his last official acts, prepared a statement for the press which read in part as follows:

"I had not been a candidate in the election and was strongly disinclined to enter public life, but in response to the unanimous request, verbally expressed by every member, I consented to accept the position, subsequently forming the present Government, which assumed office on August 13, 1921."

"Latterly it has become increasingly evident that there is not the full accord between the supporters of the Government in the Legislature and myself which is essential to the successful continuation of an administration."

ELECTION NEAR
"We are now rapidly approaching the time when the administration must make its appeal for a further mandate from the people. In faithfulness to my success in office, and to give him the opportunity of forming his own plans for the election, I have decided to tender my resignation to the Lieutenant-Governor."

Great Restorative Powers of BOVRIL

When physical strength has been sapped by influenza or any other weakening illness, or by overwork, a rapid recovery depends first and foremost upon proper nutrition. Bovril supplies this essential nourishment in a form the most delicate digestion can readily absorb. Bovril is the nourishment of beef concentrated.

Independent scientific experiment has absolutely proved that the addition of Bovril very greatly increases the nourishment got from ordinary diet.

VISITOR IN SEATTLE SAYS UNEMPLOYMENT IN BRITAIN LESS

Seattle, Nov. 23.—Charity is not the word to be applied to the unemployment dole in Great Britain, according to J. H. Raven, Leicester commercial man, now making his eighty-second sales trip through the United States in the interests of English sporting goods and shoe manufacturers.

"The dole now being paid to some 1,200,000 unemployed is really a form of belated wages," he declared at the New Washington Hotel.

"During former terms of employment, fixed sums weekly were taken out of their wages for the workmen's unemployment fund. Other sums were added by employers and the government, and now, when they need it, the workmen are getting it back in the form of doles."

Unemployment in Great Britain is gradually becoming less, according to Raven, who left London less than a month ago.

"Before Spring the number will have fallen below the 1,000,000 mark," he said, "with every indication of further decrease as business picks up and manufacturing increases."

Man is Believed Drowned in Fraser

Mission, B.C., Nov. 23.—Suddenly losing his balance while crossing the Mission-Matsqui railroad bridge at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, Thomas Harrison, fifty-five, of Regina, dropped twenty-five feet into the Fraser River and is believed to have been drowned, according to information given the Mission police by Harry Cyr, companion of Harrison, who witnessed the accident. Police have been dragging for the body, but without success.

ARBITRATION COURT TO BE ABOLISHED

Industrial Commission is Plan
Now Before New South Wales Parliament

Sydney, Australia, Nov. 23.—The system of compulsory arbitration by state courts in industrial disputes has generally been regarded as one of the chief achievements of Labor in Australia. Yet there is now before the New South Wales Parliament a bill introduced by the Labor Ministry to scrap the system. It will change drastically the whole arbitration machinery of the state. The bill proposes to abolish the Arbitration Court and to vest its powers in an Industrial Commission; to disperse with the present judges; to appoint an attorney as head of the Commission and representatives of employers and employees in equal numbers; and to enforce absolute preference to unionists in the state services. The Commission will also every six months, assess the cost of living and fix a minimum wage.

UPPER CHAMBER CONTEST

The Labor Government is really ruled by the caucus of the whole party, and the latter has caused a sensation by demanding a bill to abolish the Legislative Council, the upper chamber of the State Parliament. It was the Council's rejection of a bill to abolish capital punishment that provoked this passing of sentence of death on itself. Whether the sentence will be carried out will depend on the Governor, Sir Dudley de Chair.

Premier Lang would have to appoint about thirty-five new members to the Legislative Council, as members of the Legislative Council, immediately on entering the Chamber, are elected by the Government. Opponents of the Government argue that, though it is legitimate to appoint members to the Council to increase the Cabinet's debating strength or to force through bills previously rejected, it is not constitutional to appoint members for the express purpose of abolishing the Chamber in Queensland Labor has abolished the upper house, but in the mother state of the Commonwealth it will prove a more difficult job.

Man Who Killed Man on Highway Killed in Crash

Yakima, Wash., Nov. 23.—Bernard Newman, who several months ago was convicted of killing a man with his automobile on the Apple Way near Spokane, was killed yesterday, the victim of fast driving and, as he was the driver. Early yesterday his auto crashed into a telephone pole at the east end of the Yakima bridge, crossing the Yakima River. An eyewitness said Newman was driving at high speed. The automobile lights shot straight up in the air when the machine struck the pole.

Newman's companion, Miss Margie Laham, apparently saw what was coming, opened the door and jumped into a pile of tumble weeds before the car struck. She was only slightly injured.

Newman was pinned beneath the car, and probably was instantly killed.

Newman was out on bail awaiting action of the supreme court on his appeal from conviction for causing the death of an aged man named Kennedy on the Apple Way.

A short musical programme was also much enjoyed. Mrs. R. King gave two delightful pianoforte solos, Chopin's "Polonaise" Op. 40, "Masurka," Op. 7, Mrs. C. D. W. Dobson, J. Keatley and H. Main contributed vocal numbers. At 10 o'clock the party adjourned to the Agricultural Hall and danced until midnight.

Colwood

The Colwood Hall Social Club held its usual Saturday night social evening in the hall, when residents of the district gathered for cards and dancing.

Mrs. E. Shields and J. Goodall supplied the music. The social club is open for membership of all residents of Colwood and the neighboring districts, including Langford, Luxton and Happy Valley. Meetings are held on Monday night at 8 o'clock, and Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, and are open to all and very enjoyable evenings are held. As a result of these social gatherings, a lumber has been procured for the two small rooms at the front of the hall, and it is hoped to have the lining completed shortly. The new hall committee is sparing no effort in its endeavors to make the hall a comfortable place.

NEW MARKETING PLAN FOR CANADA'S FRUIT

One Big Selling Organization in Old Country is Now
Suggested

Brockville, Ont., Nov. 23.—Canadian apples have a name second to none in Great Britain, and already there is a market there for the exportable surplus of this country, according to F. B. Crossall of Vernon, B.C. Dominion fruit representative at the British Empire Exhibition, who has reached here on his return. He is of the opinion that marketing of Canadian fruit through one selling organization instead of through the different bodies maintained by the various fruit-growing provinces would be a advantageous and profitable, and he also thinks the time may come when Canada will join Australia and New Zealand in a similar co-operative scheme which would not be prejudicial to Canadian fruit, as the Australian offerings reach the British markets at a different season.

$100 COUNTERFEIT BILLS IN THE U.S.

Washington, Nov. 23.—A counterfeiter with high ideas of his ability to put his work into circulation has put out a spurious $100 gold certificate which the United States Treasury describes as "dangerous."

A red-blunder was made by the artist, when in one place he put "treasury" go through on the plate for "treasury." The Treasury Department describes the bill as "Series 1922," check letter "C," face plate No. 1, back plate number omitted.

munity centre of social intercourse and "get together" affairs.

To those who witnessed the last minstrel show presented in Colwood, the news that another such show is now being arranged will be welcome. The coming show will be staged by "The Superior Minstrels of Colwood," and will be for the benefit of the general hall funds. It is proposed to give the show on December 22, and an excellent programme is now being rehearsed.

Luxton

A concert programme of excellent talent was presented by Victoria artists at the Luxton Hall on Saturday evening at an entertainment held under the auspices of the Luxton and Happy Valley Women's Institute in aid of the institute funds. The programme had been arranged by Miss Vivian Moggey at the request of the convenor of the affair, Mrs. Morrow. The programme opened with a pianoforte duet, by Miss Merle North, L.A.B., and Miss Vivian Moggey, L.A.B., their splendid execution eliciting hearty applause which was responded to by an encore, Dr. W. Bryce's violin solos gave great pleasure, and he generously responded again and again to the insistent calls of the audience. The programme was a special treat to music lovers. The Misses North and Moggey acted as accompanists.

There was an excellent attendance and in response Chairman Trace's appeal for a hearty vote of thanks to the entertainers there was deafening applause and the audience rose and gave "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

Following the concert programme, refreshments were served by ladies of the institute and a short informal dance was indulged in until midnight, the ladies contributing to the dance music.

British-Israel Meeting Held At Metchosin

A well-attended meeting in Metchosin Hall on Friday night marked the end of the series that has been held in this city and vicinity by the British-Israel Association—Rev. C. T. Batzold, secretary-general for Canada, said that the teaching of British-Israel solved many problems in the Bible and in human life that were untouched by the teachings of accepted theology. The historical records of the British race agree absolutely with the predictions regarding Israel. The movement is both patriotic and loyal, since it is believed that the British have been covenanted by God to great responsibilities as well as blessings, and that the throne of the Empire is the throne of David, which was established forever over Israel.

Major F. T. Frost, in a racy talk gave many reminiscences of the East. Dealing with the Eastern question he stated that Turkey was too crippled by the war to challenge Britain in the Mosul affair.

INCOME TAX TOTAL IN THE U.S. GROWS

Washington, Nov. 23.—Despite a reduction in rates United States Treasury receipts from taxation on personal incomes for 1924 were greater by $25,482,586 than for the previous year.

The total of personal tax payments for 1924 was $688,134,185, or a gain of 3.7 per cent over taxes received on the 1923 income. The growth in the total receipts occurred notwithstanding a decrease of nearly 400,000 in the number of returns filed, which to September 29 last was 1,447,493.

Worm Turns and Now Lenders in France Have the Blues

Paris, Nov. 23.—The note shavers and chattel mortgage specialists in France have the blues. To many of the profession it seems the only remedy is for the money lenders to retire from business until the return of better times.

Changed conditions of life in France are the principal cause. Borrowing has gone on even more extensively, but all of it has not been spent in riotous living. Part of the loans has gone into foreign oil or mining stocks which, advancing automatically in value as the franc went down, brought handsome profits. The borrowers began paying interest to the lenders in depreciated francs, pocketing the profits and then borrowing more money to finance new deals.

CHAMPAGNE SUPPLY SHOWS A DECREASE

Athens, Nov. 23.—Champagnes of France this year are going to be good in quality, but there will be less of them.

The champagne harvest was finished in splendid weather and the grapes in the cellars, ready for the special preparation necessary for the production of the world's most renowned wine, are expected to furnish about 2,750,000 gallons.

Mildew and blight caused much damage, the secretary of the Champagne Wine Growers' Association reported, but the crop is generally healthy.

Women play an important part in the wine industry of Champagne. It is women who dig out the vines which are attacked by phylloxera and who replace them with vines imported from the United States. Women prune the vines and harvest much of the crop. They also make up a large part of the labor required in the cellars and in labelling and dressing up the bottles with the gay gold foil.

Maclellan, was 774. The by-election in Bagot, made necessary by the death of Mr. Maclellan a few days after his election, will be held on December 7. Nominations will close on November 30.

DR. WOODHOUSE TO TALK ON SUGAR

Head of T.B. Association to Speak at Memorial Hall Wednesday

Some interesting facts concerning the heliotherapy or sun cure will be given by Dr. Woodhouse of Ottawa, secretary of the Tuberculosis Association of Canada, at a public meeting to be held in the Memorial Hall on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Woodhouse has recently returned from Europe, where he studied conditions at Dr. Rollier's famous heliotherapy sanatorium at Lausanne, Switzerland, and at Sir Henry Gauvain's home for crippled children at Alton, Hants.

The address will be especially timely in view of the interest which has been aroused by the proposed sanatorium project at Mill Bay, and it is anticipated that there will be a large audience to hear this well-known medical man speak on the progress made about the lines of the use of the sun as a curative agent.

FAMOUS KLONDIKE PIONEER INTENDS TO PROSPECT HERE

Robert Henderson Discovered Richest Gold Land in World in 1895

Famous the world over as the discoverer of the Klondike Indian River goldfields, Robert Henderson, sixty-eight-year-old veteran of the Yukon, who spent thirty-one years of his life in the woods and on the creeks of the Far North, is to-day planning to prospect on Vancouver Island.

Interviewed this morning, Mr. Henderson admitted that already he had found "color" in streams not many miles from Victoria.

"There is a possibility," said Mr. Henderson, "that I might make a discovery on this island that would surprise a good many people. I firmly believe that there is plenty of gold here, and in the event of my making a discovery, others will certainly follow. It is only a matter of time when the wealth of the country will be realized, as in the Yukon."

SHANKS TO DEWAND RETRACED FROM HIGGINS TO-NIGHT

Alderman Shanks Sees Eye to Eye With Mayor

"I heartily approve of Mayor Fen-dray's action in demanding from Frank Higgins, K.C., complete exoneration of the City Council from complicity in any commission, and shall this evening move the council to uphold formally any action necessary to clear the fog created by Mr. Higgins' insinuation," declared Alderman J. A. Shanks this afternoon.

"Mr. Higgins has cast most serious reflections upon the personnel of the council. He has referred in an insinuating manner, to payment of a commission in connection with the expropriation of the Esquimalt waterworks, followed this up by asserting before the Private Bills Committee that the council should come before that body with clean hands, and capped these affronts with a definite refusal to exonerate the Mayor and aldermen from complicity."

"As a member of the council I am equally bemuddled with the rest of the aldermen. I certainly think the Mayor is right in his action to obtain redress, and shall press for action," said the alderman.

Imperial Potentate Stirs Interest by Purple Ink Here

Major L. J. Powell of Portland, Imperial Potentate of the Ku Klux Klan, arrived in Victoria this morning and was busy all morning with Klan heads here. He left on the afternoon boat for Vancouver. Klan heads accompanied him to the wharf.

Major Powell made his headquarters at the Empress Hotel. Hotel attaches had their attention drawn to the Imperial Potentate by a peculiar shade of brilliant purple ink which he carried with him and with which he signed the register.

Dr. Keith Allen, Imperial Kaliff, went after the Klansmen to the west end. He addressed a gathering of 1,500 people Sunday night. Capt. Leveock-Kiesie, had charge of the visit of the two Klan officials.

Man's Body Found In Point Grey Bush

Vancouver, Nov. 23.—The body of a man, badly decomposed, was found this afternoon in a clump of brush in Point Grey by R. Hodgins.

A bottle marked "poison" was found about ten feet from the body by Chief Constable John Murdoch of the Point Grey police.

The wearing apparel and general appearance of the remains convince the police the disappearance of Alfred John Westlake, who left home in Vancouver and has not been seen since August 1, has been solved.

Westlake wore gold-rimmed spectacles and rubber-soled shoes, a dark grey suit, and white collar and cuffs, which items correspond to those on the body discovered to-day.

Bankruptcy Move FAILED IN COURT

Vancouver, Nov. 23.—Application of the Press and Mercantile Exchange Limited of Hatzefor an order of bankruptcy against the British Columbia Berry Growers' Union, made before Mr. Justice Gregory in Supreme Court this morning, was dismissed.

The petition to the court by the Exchange was based on the failure of the Union to pay a bill for approximately $5,000. The action was dismissed when the defense pointed out that under the Bankruptcy Act, when a firm had ceased to apply money on an account to the creditor more than six months prior to the application, no steps to force an could be taken.

ATMOSPHERE OF CIRCUS RING IN BIG GRIFFITH FEATURE

Carol Dempster, as Mad-cap Sally McGargle, is Starring This Week at the Dominion Theatre in "Sally of the Sawdust"

Ranked by national critics as one of the six best pictures of the year, D. W. Griffith's newest production, "Sally of the Sawdust," now at the Dominion, is the first motion picture to receive this distinction where the critics have seen it in an unfinished condition.

During one of the trial showings of the picture, which Mr. Griffith always makes that the public may tell him what is interesting and what is not; several national critics on vacation in that vicinity, dropped in to see it. So enthusiastic were they, that they immediately telegraphed for the remainder of the board of critics to come to a later showing.

Then they voted it one of the best pictures of this year, and one of the most entertaining pictures ever made.

No other producer ever has had so many pictures ranked in the select list of best, as Mr. Griffith, but for delightful entertainment, laughter, human play of emotions and splendid acting, "Sally of the Sawdust" ranks with the finest things he has ever done.

The charm of circus life and carnival excitement for the background is illuminated with the joyful gaiety of two characters new to the screen, the side-show entertainer, juggler and hand-man, with other people's pockets, and his ward, who believes she is his daughter and who loves and fights for him.

The comedian's part is played by W. C. Fields, for years famous laugh-maker at the stage and now star of the Ziegfeld "Follies." The daughter's part is played by Carol Dempster, the young California girl who has made such sensational advances in her screen work in the last year. The part of Sally McGargle, the whimsical, impulsive wife of the circus who idolizes her "Pop," and presents his greatest riviery as the perfection of a noble, honorable gentleman, is the best work of her career and one of the memorable triumphs of screen acting.

Others whom Mr. Griffith recruited from the stage for parts in this picture are Alfred Lunt, star of "The Guardsman" and Glenn Anders, featured player in the Pulitzer prize-winning play, "They Knew What They Wanted."

The cast is the largest Mr. Griffith has used in any picture excepting his great spectacles such as "The Birth of a Nation," "America," "Orphans of the Storm" and "Hearts of the World."

The scenes are lavishly staged, varying from circus activities to the social splendors of beautiful homes. And as typical of Griffith's work, the action grows to a sensational finish, including one of the most hilarious scenes ever screened in which the irresponsible McGargle drives his car across country in an effort to rescue the circus from a fire.

A woman described as "the wife of a New York millionaire," recently lost her ring while travelling from Leuven to Elyan.

She was crossing Lake Geneva in a motor launch when the ring dropped overboard. It was a platinum ring, and valuable. "Stop," she told the boatman, "I want the lake drained, and I'll pay for it!"

War Comedy is Staged To-day by Hincks' Players

Ernie Petch Will Take Role of "Old Bill" in Presentation of "The Better 'Ole"

Those who really want to have one big evening of enjoyment should not fail to attend one of the performances at the Playhouse Theatre this week. Reginald Hincks's Company is to present one of the most popular war-time comedies ever staged, "Old Bill" or "The Better 'Ole," the popular Ernie Petch playing the title role.

Mr. Hincks selected Capt. Bainsfather's famous character, "Old Bill," as he knew that Ernie Petch could fill the role perfectly. The play is a scream from beginning to end, and the Playhouse management guarantee that there is more than a scream a minute. During rehearsals last week Ernie Petch was the cause of nearly having to give up the play as a "bad job." The comedy is so rapid that the company was unable to keep pace with the laughs brought forth by Ernie. It was one laugh after another, which made it nearly impossible for the cast to take their parts seriously. The cast includes Eileen Bennett, Peggy Lewis, Audrey Bennett, Hugh Williamson, Harold Bennett, Reginald Hincks and Marie Broadman.

On the screen the Playhouse will present Paramount's brilliant, ultra-modern comedy-romance, "In the Name of Love." A flashing, sparkling story of spirited youth and rapturous romance is "In the Name of Love," which swings from light, humorous, laugh-compelling scenes to situations crammed with tense, emotional appeal and vivid, dramatic action. Superbly interpreted by a sterling cast of popular favorites, featuring the screen's most dynamic lover, Ricardo Cortez, the new, ravishing film beauty, Greta Nissen, and the inimitable comedy-villain duo, Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton.

"The Way of a Girl" Offers Thrills at Columbia Theatre

Metro-Goldwyn Mayer Production is Adapted to Screen from Novel "The Summons"

"The modern flapper and the girl of yesterday remind me so much of Kipling's famous line about 'Judy O'Grady and the Colonel's Lady' being sisters under the skin." Why? Because, like Judy O'Grady and the Colonel's Lady, the modern flapper and the girl of yesterday are so different the surface, yet so much alike basically!"

That's the opinion of Robert G. Vignola, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer director, culled from his observations while directing Eleanor Boardman as a debutante flapper in "The Way of a Girl," his latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, which is coming to the Columbia Theatre to-day. "I didn't think much about the

"Sally of the Sawdust," showing at the Dominion this week flapper in relation to her demurer sister of twenty years ago until I directed Miss Boardman as the flapperish debutante heroine in "The Way of a Girl," explained Mr. Vignola. "Then I saw that in spite of the spirit of adventure dominating the flapper to-day, her craving for experiences, thrills and the realities of life, her desire to know things as they actually exist in

GRANDJANY, FAMOUS HARPISIT, TO PLAY AT CRYSTAL GARDEN

Marcel Grandjany, the celebrated French harpist, will play at the Crystal Garden in this city on the evening of January 11, 1926.

Since the time of David there has been no instrument more used and abused than the harp. "He played on a harp of a thousand strings" to get his effect and it is doubtful that he ever succeeded in producing the transcendent result that Marcel Grandjany, the great French harp virtuoso, achieves with his instrument of fewer strings but of greater capacity. The most poetic instrument of all times responds in floods of harmony and color to this master's inspired touch. More than this, the dignity of his work, apart from its romanticism, entitles it to be ranked above all self-mechanisms, not excluding the human voice. Nor does it depend upon an orchestral background to fill the picture. He weaves his own background of deep sonority and against it he makes stand out like filigree the singing harmony of the composition he interprets. Whether of the modern school or the classic, Grandjany's rendition of the music written in given with swift and robust expression from an instrument always accredited with more than celestial qualities.

Lee Moran and Chester Conklin Are With Reginald Denny in Feature Universal Jewel Picture, "Where Was I?"

One of the most elaborate sets ever constructed by Universal, which is famous for its immense sets, was constructed for the filming of "Where Was I?" a Universal Jewel starring Reginald Denny, which is showing at the Capitol Theatre.

At an expenditure almost unbelievable, a complete New York subway station and a block of underground track was built on the California lot to eliminate the necessity of the company making a trip to New York. On this a regular subway car bought from the Interborough Rapid Transit Company was run. New Yorkers who have seen the picture stated that they never for a moment realized that they were not seeing an actual subway.

The engineering department of the Universal studios borrowed the specifications and plans for the station and tunnel from the New York subway company which gladly loaned them to the motion picture concern.

While no attempt has been made to make the subway of practical transportation value, it has been allowed to remain intact on the California lot and will eliminate the necessity of taking a large company to New York. The money saved is not such a large item from a production point of view but the time saved—ten days for the round trip—is of utmost importance in the Universal production schedule.

A fighting, pushing crowd of extras was put into the station and for the realistic effect the only instruction given by William Foster, director was, "See who can get into the cars first." A beautiful rush hour scene was enacted.

Reginald Denny's ruffled appearance when he reaches the car was not in the least artificial. As a result of the "business" on the platform some very good comedy was secured.

This was just one incident in "Where Was I?" but it contributes a generous share to the delicious comedy of the piece.

Besides Denny the cast includes Marian Dixon, Pauline Garon, Tyrone Power, Lee Moran, Chester Conklin, O. H. Harlan, William H. Turner, Tom Lingham, Arthur Lake and James Corrigan.

The story was taken from the magazine serial by Edgar Franklin. The adaptation was done by Melville Brown and Rex Taylor.

THE VOICE

By G. Jennings Burnett

A MUSICAL critic once remarked before a London audience, "There has been more nonsense spoken and written on the subject of voice production than on any other subject, not excluding theology." It does seem strange that in no department of musical effort is there so much confusion as in theory and practice as in singing. Many systems and methods of voice production abound. Some with good points, some with decidedly bad points. To adopt any one of them exclusively is to become its slave, which if not right in every practical detail, is fraught with disastrous consequences and not good for the teacher or the pupil. Seeing that the greatest variety of opinions exist upon the cultivation of the voice, it is imperative that the teacher be sure of his or her ground. No theory is worthy of acceptance but that which is based upon scientific principles and has been established as an outcome of successful experience and trial. It is possible for an expert and an authority to go astray as an extremist on some particular fact. It is vital for the teacher to accept certain principles that are fundamental in character. Vocal art in its artistic triumphs must surely rest upon such a basis. This being so a brief physiological statement of the voice for the general reader will not be out of place. The actual voice is produced by the larynx, the vocal cords or vocal folds (as they are called) attached to the glottis and thrown into vibration by the current of air which, in expiration, passes over their edges. The vocal cords consist of elastic tissue, really muscle, and through their attachments to the cartilage of the larynx they can be stretched more or less tightly as occasion requires. The thyro-arytenoid muscles have perhaps the largest share in placing the vocal cords in a parallel position with one another and of relaxing them. Another set of muscles separate the vocal cords and dilate the glottis. In tranquil, or ordinary breathing the opening of the glottis is wide and triangular. In deep breathing the opening is widely dilated. But at the moment of singing the vocal cords are almost closed and parallel with each other and tightly stretched. The higher the note produced the greater is the tension of the cords, and it follows that the range of the voice depends on the amount of tension which the cords can undergo. All movements are executed by the nerves, voluntary or involuntary, there is no action without some sort of stimulus causing that action. When not singing, the breath is inhaled and expired involuntarily and quietly without any effort of retention. In singing more breath is required and held; at the same time relieving the larynx and throat of all sense of strain and pressure that the voice may be free and open without restraint. Many weird and wonderful theories of breathing are extant, "breath control," "breath band," and "ventricular," etc., which may be good, but are of little value if they endanger the one essential condition of relaxation and naturalness. Alkan once said, "I don't understand those great names about breath. I just breathe naturally." Yet we have Lamperti's and Pachurotti's axioms, "Sing on the breath," and "He that knows how to pronounce and to breathe knows how to sing," which contain a world of meaning. A faulty production and pitch will arise from imperfect breathing. Speaking of pitch, reminds the writer of this story, "Jeena," observed the minister to his praise leader, "they say your singing is sharp." "It's a good job, sir, we haven't bathed the same fault," was the reply. "For the folks say your discourses are dreadful flat." But unlike some vocalists, the preacher knew when to give up, for struggling over a new tune with the congregation, he succumbed, and said, "Ye're out, I'm out, and we're a' out together." The larynx, like the eye, with its many independent parts is a marvel of wisdom, adaptability, purpose and beneficent design. While the best skill of man requires a pipe over eight feet in length to that of three inches to surface the compass of the male and

CATHEDRAL CHOIR TO GIVE CONCERT

Christ Church Choristers in Programme at Memorial Hall Tuesday

The choir of Christ Church Cathedral will give a concert at the Memorial Hall to-morrow evening at 8.15 o'clock. To a great many people the voices of boys in the rendition of music give a thrill of pleasure reminiscent of the delight experienced in the cathedrals and churches of the older countries. The boy members of this choir give a good account of themselves in singing voices with the older members in the choral selections, as also in the individual performance of vocal and instrumental solos and duets.

Tickets may be obtained from W. H. Davis, organist and choirmaster, or from Fletcher Brothers.

Here is the Proof

That Dr. Chase's Ointment does positively relieve the most severe cases of piles.

While Dr. Chase's Ointment is recognized everywhere as the standard treatment for piles you may be interested in this letter which describes one particular case. There are thousands of similar cases.

Mrs. Wm. Hughes, Appleton, Ont., writes: "Dr. Chase's Ointment cannot be equalled. I used it for protruding piles of the worst kind. When the Doctor said an operation was the only hope, I began to prepare for one, when I remembered reading about Dr. Chase's Ointment. I resolved to try it, and after using two boxes I had no trace of the piles. It was the greatest relief I ever got, and I only hope other sufferers who read this letter will lose no time in purchasing a box, and see for themselves the miracles it works. It will be the best investment they ever put their money into."

"Abie's Irish Rose" Will be Seen Thursday

Three-act Comedy by Anne Nichols to Play at Royal for Three Days

"Abie's Irish Rose," the three-act comedy by Anne Nichols, begins an engagement of three days at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Thursday, November 26, with Saturday matinee. Miss Nichols has woven a refreshing comedy around the racial characteristics of Hebrew and Hibernian, yet so good natured and true that it is inoffensive. The story tells how Abie Levy secretly marries little Irish Rosemary Murphy, and how his father-ignorant of the marriage is delighted at the prospect of his marrying little Jewish Rose—and not a "schism." Many complications develop when Abie's father discovers that Rosemary is not Miss Murphy but the daughter of Pat Murphy. After a year of struggling—both of the newweds being disowned—they all get together on Christmas Eve and there is a grand reunion and general forgiveness.

"Abie's Irish Rose" will be presented here by the same excellent cast of metropolitan players that recently concluded an engagement of forty-two weeks with this wonderful play at Los Angeles, Cal. Another company is now in its fourth year at the Republic Theatre, New York, and another ran over year at the Studebaker Theatre, Chicago.

A large cast of carefully chosen New York actor artists, assisted by a bevy of pretty bridesmaids, and an exact and heavy duplication of the New York scenic production is carried in a special seventy-foot baggage car, assuring a noteworthy production of "Abie's Irish Rose."

Music Lovers' Night at Capitol

The Capitol Theatre orchestra, which will give a Music Lovers' Night to-night, as usual have selected a snappy and light programme for the presentation of Reginald Denny in his feature picture "Where Was I?" This is a comedy of a rollicking order and allows of a programme of music of all the latest numbers to be presented. Some of the numbers to be rendered during the evening are as follows:

Overture—(a) "The Swan," Saint Saens; (b) "Hungarian Dance," Brahms.

Selection—"Good Morning, Dearie" Kerns.

Fox Trot—"I'm Tired of Everything But You" Jones.

Waltz—"Love Thoughts" Edwards.

PIANIST MISTAKEN FOR BOMB THROWER

Dundalk, Nov. 23.—Backhaus, the celebrated pianist, was detained by the customs officials of the Irish Free State at the local station under suspicion of being a bomb-thrower or a smuggler of machine-guns.

Backhaus carries a special piano for use at his concerts. It has detachable legs which can be unscrewed and packed into a special case. This mysterious case with its strange contents was too much for the customs men. Backhaus and his manager were required to leave the train, but finally persuaded the officials they were not dangerous anarchists.

Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

New York, Nov. 23 (By R. P. Clark & Co.).—The stock market developed a sharp reactionary tone in the afternoon session and closed at the day's lowest levels. Short covering and the prominence of the oil division on the upside was of temporary influence in propelling prices upward, but each succeeding rally met with freer offerings, particularly in the industrial sector and in the late afternoon the general list influenced by the pronounced weakness of the industrial shares was offered down in heavy volume, though the rail and oil shares showed the better absorptive power.

It is quite likely that some nervousness was again felt over the outcome of the New York Federal Reserve board's meeting, which is scheduled this week for Wednesday instead of Thursday due to the latter being a holiday. On the other hand money ruled steady at 4 1/2 per cent and the news generally speaking was constructive character, especially in the reports on the oil industry.

An upward revision of 25 cents a barrel in Pennsylvania crude was reported, advances in gasoline in various sections and a subsidiary of Pan American Petroleum brought in a 40,000 barrel well in the territory where a 100,000 barrel well was reported several days ago, and it is likely this last mentioned influence improved the demand for the Pan American issues early which led the oil division in its advance.

Reports from Washington that Senator Cummins is preparing a bill permitting voluntary consolidation of railroads without any fixed plan may be a constructive influence to look forward to and if such is attained it would likely meet with the approval of efforts that have been shaping themselves.

It looks as though liquidation is still being conducted in many issues in the industrial sector and this runs its course the general market may have a heavy appearance, particularly so in the industrial department, where tendencies are rallying.

Another factor which prevented the development of a sustained rebound was the substantial amount of liquidation on any show of strength. While this process of correction was in progress, constructive interest developed a tendency to allow the market to take care of itself with the result that Steel, General Motors, DuPont, Chrysler and other leaders of the preceding advance were forced into new low ground on the reaction.

Rails were also heavy due mostly to the throwing overboard of stocks bought in an attempt to check the downward swing of the industrials. Despite the bearishness prevailing in speculative circles regarding the latter class, re-accumulation by investors was reported in the afternoon and the market by what has been taken place in the motor groups, said a shrewd observer. Price movements are now becoming badly colored by the news of the three weeks ago when excessive advances pointed to reversal of movement. Nothing has happened in the meantime to remove the psychological structure built by the speculative public.

By the same yard stick, motor shares are again on a round ball and the outlook for the first half of next year, with earnings good, is promising. Durants continued to buy White, which reached new high ground on the round ball. Re-accumulation was reported in Hudson for the account of the people who sponsored the stock's hundred point advance this year. There was no buying in U.S.

Rubber common by interests which have acted for insiders in the past. This year is expected to be one of the best enjoyed by the rubber company. It is well known that U.S. Rubber is in an enviable crude rubber position. Through ownership of large plantations in Sumatra and on the Malay Peninsula, a large part of its raw material needs are supplied. This crude rubber is especially adapted to the requirements of the company. Profits from this source alone are estimated in the neighborhood of $5,000,000 in 1925. With crude rubber at its present high levels some manufacturers would be hard pressed to make a favorable showing in 1926, unless their prices are further advanced. Goodyear in trade circles is to the effect that another upward revision of tire prices will be made before the end of 1925.

ECCELESIASTICAL ART TO BE SHOWN AT W.A. MISSIONARY BAZAAR

A missionary bazaar and interesting exhibition of ecclesiastical art will be held at the Memorial Hall gymnasium on Friday, November 4. Under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary, the bazaar will include a set of very fine drawings for stained glass windows by Percy Tasson, L.L.B. (Cantab.), together with sketches of figures in colors for stained glass windows. In addition the plans for the new Cathedral will also be shown, the whole making a most interesting and unique collection.

Arrangements have also been made for an interesting mental hygiene exhibit. The material is the same as that prepared for use at the recent Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto, and should prove of great value to social service workers and all interested in the great problem of the mentally deficient.

Annual Potato Show This Week Promises To be Great Success

One of the finest shows staged for years is anticipated when the Provincial exhibit of the British Columbia potato growers is held at New Westminster commencing Wednesday, and continuing for the balance of the week. The British Columbia growers carried off a number of prizes at the Spokane show with the Pacific Northwest Potato Growers' Association last week, and they are now hoping to put on an excellent exhibition at the Royal City.

There will be a very fine district display from Vancouver Island in competition for the Farmers' Institutes' Advisory Council Cup, which is at present held by Victoria District Potato Growers' Association. While there are some thirty associations in the province, only five or six will enter in the competition.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggly and the Cranberries

Copyright, 1925, McClure Newspaper Syndicate

(By Howard R. Garis)

Uncle Wiggly Longears, the kind old rabbit gentleman, had gone to visit Johnnie and Billie Bushytail, the squirrels, in their hollow tree house. Uncle Wiggly was to spend Thanksgiving with the Bushytails.

But one day just as Uncle Wiggly was about to hop out with Billie and Johnnie, having promised to do a magical trick for them, as I told you in the story before this, all of a sudden some one came rushing into the hollow tree, crying:

"Uncle Wiggly here? Oh, where is Uncle Wiggly?"

"Perhaps you had better hide," chattered Mrs. Bushytail, looking at the rabbit gentleman.

"Why so?" he asked, twinkling his pink nose.

"Because this might be the Fuzzy Fox or the Woozle Wolf looking for you, to nibble your ears as a Thanksgiving treat."

"No, ma'am," politely answered the puppy.

giving feast," replied the mother of Billie and Johnnie. "Better hide!" chattered Mrs. Bushytail, looking at the rabbit gentleman.

"If it's any of the bad chaps, we'll fix them!" cried the squirrel boys, ruffling up their tails. Johnnie found some necky chestnut burrs to throw and Billie was ready with some hard shells of hickory nuts, but there was no need to be afraid.

For it was Jackie Bow Wow, the puppy dog boy, who had asked about Uncle Wiggly.

"Where is he?" panted Jackie. "What is the matter?" asked Mrs. Bushytail. "Has anything happened, Jackie, that you are in such a hurry?"

"No, ma'am," politely answered the puppy. "But I heard that Uncle Wiggly was spending Thanksgiving here and mother sent me to ask him if I wouldn't spend Christmas week with us. Will you, please?" he asked the rabbit gentleman.

"I'll see about it," was all Uncle Wiggly would promise. And now, since you are here, Jackie, you had better come along with Johnnie, Billie and me."

"Yes," invited Billie. "Uncle Wiggly is going to turn that white basket into a red one," and the squirrel pointed his paw at the white birch bark basket.

"How is he going to turn it red?" barked Jackie.

"I'll soon show you," answered the rabbit gentleman, mysteriously like. "With the squirrels and the little dog, Uncle Wiggly hopped over the fields and through the woods. The sun was shining, the air was fresh and cool and they all felt happy."

They felt so happy that Uncle Wiggly hopped, Jackie Bow Wow ran as hard as he could and Johnnie and Billie scampered along, climbing a tree every now and then.

"But I don't see how Uncle Wiggly is going to turn that white basket into a red one," Jackie in a low voice to his squirrel friends when they had gone about a mile.

"I don't either,"

Then, all of a sudden, while the three boy animals were running along, Jackie disappeared from sight. He seemed to have fallen into a hole and he cried: "Help! Help! Help!"

"You're all right! Don't be afraid!" laughed Uncle Wiggly, hopping quickly up and pulling Jackie from the hole. "You just fell into the bog, that's all."

"What bog?" asked Jackie, who could be seen just at all.

"The cranberry bog," answered Uncle Wiggly. "Thanksgiving cranberries grow in bogs, or low places, and I was looking for this place. You all in and found it for me. Now we shall pick the basket full of cranberries and Mrs. Bushytail will cook them for Thanksgiving."

"Oh, now I see how Uncle Wiggly did the magic trick! Look, the white basket has turned red!" And so it had, for it was filled with red cranberries.

"Yes, that's my trick!" laughed the happy gentleman. "And now we had better hop home before any of the bad chaps chase us out of this bog." So home to the hollow tree the rabbit and the squirrels went, and Jackie ran to tell his mother that perhaps Mr. Longears would spend Christmas week with them. And if the broom doesn't make a mistake and brush dust in the face of the watch-U! tell you next about Uncle Wiggly and Mr. Slow Poke.

GORDON HEAD FAVORS CHANGE IN TAX METHOD

Farm Areas Bear Too Great Share of Municipal Charges

Gordon Head taxpayers, meeting on Saturday evening at the Gordon Head Hall, agreed that the present method of taxation is too heavy, proportionately, on the farming areas of Saanich, especially in Ward Three, where the assessment on agricultural land is higher than in other portions of the municipality.

Figures were presented showing that Gordon Head taxpayers contribute in school levy much greater sums than is expended in the ward for education.

A delegation was appointed to wait on the Provincial Government and discuss the zone system of taxation. Reeves MacNeil and ex-Reeve G. E. Watson will head the delegation.

WATER LACKING

Criticism of the lack of water pressure was voiced, especially in view of the recent destruction of the Gordon Head School by fire. A resolution was adopted drawing the attention of the Municipal Council to the condition.

The School Board will be requested to rebuild the destroyed school as soon as possible, and the meeting will ask that the plans for the replacement structure be designed with a view to expansion of the structure to keep pace with the closer settlement of Gordon Head.

$25,000 PAID FOR A SADDLE HORSE

Kansas City, Nov. 23.—What is said to be the highest price ever paid for a saddle horse was given at the American Royal Livestock show here Saturday when Mrs. W. M. Matson, San Francisco, paid $25,000 for Chief Longview, owned by Mrs. Louisa Long Combs of Kansas City.

Longview is a five-gaited stallion, three years old. Horse fanciers here say Mrs. Matson has taken to California one of the greatest horses produced in many years. He carries in his pedigree four crosses of the great Harrison Chief, Kentucky's famous sire and founder of the Chief line.
